The Peloponnese is a truly amazing winter and summer destination in Greece. You will connect to the history, wandering through natural landscapes and relaxing under the Greek sun. This southern peninsula close to Athens is dominated by forested mountains, beaches with azure waters, valleys and rivers. The region's vineyards, such as Nemea, are contributing to Greece's wine renaissance and the Peloponnese is full of legends. There are numerous archaeological sites, historical towns, monuments, churches and castle-cities. Ancient sights like Olympia, Mycenae, Epidaurus, Nafplio and Corinth are captivating. Kalamaki Beach resort provides the perfect location if you wish to explore the sights and natural environments that the Peloponnese offers, all a short drive away.
