A small village founded in 1878, Montebello will charm you with its landscape and two very popular attractions – the Fairmont Le Château and Omega Park.

Along the Ottawa River and thanks to its two marinas, vacationers can enjoy a multitude of activities including cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and hiking in winter.

This 2 night package includes some great activities to help you to discover this quaint village.

The Package Includes:

- 2 night accommodation in a Fairmont Room at the Château Montebello
- 2 breakfasts
- Access to multiple activities: 42 km of groomed cross country trails; 2 ice rinks; Hockey sticks and pucks; Curling Clinics for beginners (as scheduled, reservation required); Disc Golf (reservation required); Cross country skis and equipment; Skates; Snowshoes; Access to Kenauk Nature's cross country and snowshoe trails
- 1 ticket for Omega Park
- Taxes and service fees.

Day 1

After arriving at the Fairmont Le Château Montebello, check in to your room. Unpack and then put on your snowshoes and enjoy the 5km forested trail surrounding the hotel. It's an excellent way to enjoy a beautiful winter day.

Overnight : Château Montebello – Fairmont Room

Winter Magic at Montebello - 3 days/ 2 nights

Day 2

After breakfast this morning, make your way to Omega Park for a 12 kilometer drive on a marked trail where you might encounter some of the twenty species of wild animals from the northern hemisphere. Deer may come to your window to greet you especially if you have carrots to feed them.

In order to make your stay at the park safe and to protect the animals, it is important to follow the posted safety instructions at all times.

It usually takes just over an hour to do the drive and once you are done, the rest of the day is at leisure.

Overnight : Château Montebello – Fairmont Room

Day 3

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before checking out. You may leave your luggage at the hotel so that you can browse through the local artisan shops before departing Montebello.
