The trails of Le Baluchon offer an incomparable setting for outdoor enthusiasts. On an enchanting site, Le Baluchon Eco Resort is a privileged place for nature lovers with its 40 km of trails in the forest and along the river. Already renowned for its fine gastronomy, for the professionalism of its SPA and its outdoor activities, Le Baluchon invites its guests to the cachet of a sugar shack with a rustic decor, to a meeting with horse lovers and to the charming discovery of the Eco-café Au bout du monde. A vast choice of activities combined with the four seasons' decorations make for an unforgettable stay and escape.

Day 1

Arrive at the Baluchon and settle into your room. Le Baluchon Éco-villégiature offers four inns and two cottages with over 89 rooms, each with its own personality. You will find newly decorated rooms, all inspired by the nature and history of the Saint-Paulin region and all designed according to the precepts of "slow design", a philosophy that aims to reduce the ecological footprint through non-polluting manufacturing methods and the use of renewable resources.

These beautiful rooms offer a blend of rusticity and modernity that surprises with its harmony and ingenuity. The majority of the decorative elements of these rooms are unique and have been made by local artisans.
