Day 2 : Full day Seoul City Tour

Breakfast at the hotel. Meet your guide at the lobby and start your tour. A Full Day tour begins with a visit to the Gyeongbokgung Royal Palace, which is the first of five palaces built during the Joseon Dynasty. You will see the Royal Guard Changing Ceremonies and be introduced to the era of Korean emperors.

After a tour of the palace, the guide will take you to the ideal place to buy souvenirs - Insadong Antique Street, for some free time to enjoy the local food and purchase souvenirs.

Continue to visit The National Museum of Korea, housing a vast collection of over 220,000 artifacts from ancient times to the modern era in a wide range of topics, including art and culture. The museum houses a Children's Museum, where visitors can learn more about the nation's history through educational programs and experiences. The outdoor grounds feature pagodas and other stone artworks too large to be on display inside. In addition to galleries with a wide array of national and international pieces, the National Museum of Korea is the stage for several cultural activities related to collection, preservation, research and analysis, social training, academic publications, intercultural exchange programs, concerts, and more.

Day 2 : Full day Seoul City Tour (cont'd)

In the evening, visit the famous Korea House, opened in 1981. It is a traditional Korean building that introduces the culture and lifestyle of Koreans, where you can experience traditional architecture and a classical atmosphere. The building was built in the style of the Joseon Dynasty's Jagyeong-jeon building at the Gyeongbok Palace. It is the only building built in the traditional architectural style. You will feel its antiquity as you enter the building.

After dinner the guide will accompany you to the hotel where you can take a rest and enjoy the evening.

Day 3 : Seoul, Lotte World Tower – Lotte Sky

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to the Jamsil area to visit Lotte World Tower – the highest building in Korea. Lotte World Tower was designed with a conceptual motif inspired by Korean ceramics and writing brushes. With 123 floors total, the tower is the fifth tallest building in the world, standing at 555 meters.

Visit Seoul Sky, located on floors 117-123 of Lotte World Tower. The observatory offers a panoramic view of the entire capital city, beautiful both day and night. SEOUL SKY consists of an exhibition zone, observation deck, sky deck, dessert cafe, sky terrace, lounge, and more.

After a relaxing day, the guide will accompany you to the hotel where you can take a rest or enjoy the rest of your evening.

Day 4 : Seoul, Hyundai Motors Studio, Ginseng Museum, Dinner cruise, Shopping

Breakfast at the hotel. Meet your guide and head to In Goyang City (Gyeonggi-do) to visit the Hyundai Motors Studio and stay up to date with the latest news from the Hyundai Motors Factory and see the process of car assembly from design development to safety testing.

Continue to visit a unique place - the Ginseng Museum. Probably everyone has heard about the power of Korean ginseng. In the museum you can learn the history of ginseng with an opportunity to buy some extracts.

In the afternoon, visit the largest shopping center in Seoul where you can find numerous brands with famous Korean cosmetics and many shops with goods for children. In addition to shopping, you can enjoy a cup of coffee in one of the many cafes located here or check the latest home appliances and digital stuff at Technomart.

After shopping, depart for a romantic Han River cruise and enjoy dinner on board. E-land Cruise aims to develop a cruise theme park at Hangang River as the iconic attraction representing Seoul. It also aims to promote and familiarize the Hangang River to international tourists as a world-famous attraction. Visitors and Seoul residents alike can take a break from the busy urban atmosphere and enjoy a relaxing time while on the cruise.
