A cruise is the best way to visit the South Pacific Islands. Spend more time in these remote islands and take the opportunity to go where few travelers have gone before. Explore the secret beaches of New Caledonia's Isle of Pines, where blue waters surrounded by natural rock formations meet in a "natural pool" that has been designated a World Heritage Site. This itinerary also includes stops in Fiji and French Polynesia in Moorea and Papeete, giving you time to explore and indulge in some of the most romantic destinations.

March 26, 2023: Arrive in Sydney

After clearing customs and collecting your luggage, you will find your transfer company in the arrivals area. Check in at your hotel. The rest of the day is free.

March 27, 2023: Sydney

Depart from your hotel for a sightseeing tour of Sydney. You will visit the historic Rocks district and hear about the history of the early convicts. Continue through the Central Business District (CBD), and Macquarie Street. Marvel at 18th century sandstone architecture such as the New South Wales Parliament, Rum Hospital, Hyde Park Barracks, and St Mary's Cathedral. Continue to Mrs. Macquarie's Point for stunning views of the Sydney Opera House and Harbour Bridge.

Drive through Sydney's eastern suburbs, home to the rich and famous. Travel along the coves and shorelines and stop for photos, including a panoramic shot of the Sydney skyline.

Continue to the famous Bondi Beach for a 30-minute stop. Visit the beachfront promenade, get your toes in the sand, grab a coffee or cold drink (own expense). Watch the lifeguards and sun-tanned Aussie surfers ride the waves of Bondi. Re-board your bus and continue to Tamarama and Bronte beaches before returning to the city via Centennial Park and Paddington, a trendy area with elegant terrace houses and stores along Oxford Street.

March 31, 2023: Cruise – Isle of Pines (New Caledonia)

A walk on this picturesque island will give you a glimpse of its French heritage. Captain Cook, the first European to discover the island, named it for the towering pine trees that cover it. The Isle of Pines offers everything you could want in a tropical island: beautiful turquoise waters lined with deserted beaches, friendly people, delicious food, and tranquility.

April 1, 2023: Cruise – Mystery Island (Vanuatu)

This small paradise located off the island of Aneityum, Vanuatu, can be fully explored in just 40 minutes. The clear blue waters are perfect for snorkeling or kayaking. The market is a great opportunity to buy homemade coconut oil, kava, and other local items. The surrounding waters are a protected marine sanctuary, offering a perfect opportunity to discover unspoiled wildlife.

April 2, 2023: Cruise – at sea

Enjoy a full day at sea and the many activities available on board.

April 3, 2023: Cruise – Lautoka (Fiji)

Known as Sugar City, Lautoka is framed by the Pacific Ocean to the west and by sugar cane fields and pine forest to the east. Discover Fiji's world-renowned beaches and browse the local markets and stores. Admire the orchids and beautiful landscape of the Sleeping Giant Garden. It's easy to find your piece of paradise in Lautoka.

April 4, 2023: Cruise - Dravuni (Fiji)

This island paradise is the best place for an idyllic beach day. Lie on the white sand or snorkel in the large Astrolabe Reef. If you're looking for the best view on the island, climb to the top of the 131-foot hill for an incredible panoramic view. The local village is a great place to learn about the island's culture and buy local products.

April 6, 2023: Cruise – Apia (Samoa)

The capital of Samoa is located on the north coast of Upolu. Magnificent coral reefs surround this mountainous island covered with tropical forest. With extraordinary natural beauty in a remote tropical haven, the island is a paradise for outdoor enthusiasts. In Apia, you can get to know the locals - known for their friendliness - while visiting stores or exploring a market with stalls brimming with tropical fruits and crafts characteristic of the local Polynesian culture.

April 7, 2023: Cruise – Pago Pago (American Samoa)

Whether you prefer the sea or the mountains, the landscape will be memorable. Whales, porpoises, and sea turtles frequent the emerald waters of the island. The tropical forest that covers the rugged mountains presents an impressive array of greenery. As you visit the island, you will experience the local Polynesian culture and traditions that have remained present in the lives of many residents.

April 10, 2023: Cruise – Raiatea (French Polynesia)

Meaning "distant paradise", Raiatea is an island of stunning beauty and ancient myths, home to the largest open-air temple (marae) in French Polynesia. Many believe the island is the center from which the great Polynesian migration began and is considered the most sacred island in the South Pacific. A coral reef teeming with colorful marine life surrounds Raiatea in a tranquil lagoon - ideal for snorkeling and diving. After a dip in the lagoon, explore the lush rain forests and the extinct volcano of Mount Temehani. Enjoy your day on this culturally significant island where history, legend and natural beauty intertwine.

April 11, 2023: Cruise – Moorea (French Polynesia) - Papeete

Moorea's unique geography makes it one of the most breathtaking islands in French Polynesia. Eight mountainous peaks covered in lush vegetation rise from a translucent lagoon and two tranquil bays. The island is ideal for all ages to engage in outdoor activities. Enjoy a quiet beach or take in the local culture.

April 12, 2023: End of cruise – Papeete (French Polynesia)

End of your cruise. Disembark and transfer to the airport in Papeete.
