For travel between September 11 and Dec.20, 2023/4*hotel

Explore a region of sprawling vineyards, rolling hills, charming old cities, and masterpieces of art. Magnificent Florence - the "Cradle of the Renaissance"; Siena, famous for the Palio horse race; the Chianti area, Montepulciano and Montalcino, known for their prestigious wines; and San Gimignano - a UNESCO World Heritage site with its tall towers. Explore wineries and cellars, sample excellent wines, rare cold cuts, Pecorino cheese and olive oil, and shop for delicacies in the many food shops.

Slow Food Presidia and Other Recommended Products

Sample several Slow Food Presidia products - high-quality traditional foods, and beverages at risk of "extinction" - as well as other local delicacies from Slow Food quality producers, such as: the Certaldo onion, the Pienza Pecorino cheese, Wines of Nobile di Montepulciano, Brunello and Bolgheri vineyards, and Florence's oldest ice cream parlors, "Perché no!"

Flavours of Tuscany - 7 days / 6 nights

Day 1: Tuscany arrival

Arrive and check-in to your hotel near Florence. Time to settle in, welcome dinner and overnight stay. (D)

Day 2: Florence

Morning departure to Florence for a private guided tour. Walk through the historical center and visit the Santa Croce church (outside), known as the “Pantheon of Italian Glories” where many illustrious Italians such as Michelangelo, Galileo, Rossini, and Machiavelli are buried. The visit also takes in the other religious buildings (the Baptistery, the Duomo and Giotto’s bell tower – outside view) and the houses of power in the old city (the Piazza della Signoria). Lunch at a typical restaurant. Free time in the afternoon to stroll along the elegant streets. Try one of Florence’s oldest ice cream parlors, “Perché no!” that offers more than 33 different flavors! Return to the hotel and overnight stay. (BB, L)

Day 3: Siena, San Gimignano

This morning we suggest you visit Siena, one of the most important and beautiful architecture in the city, including the Museum delle Contrade. Try sampling some traditional desserts like the Panforte in one of the famous pastry shops in town. Free time for shopping. On the way to San Gimignano, along the ancient Via Francigena, lunch in a family-run farmhouse will include traditional local produce such as the Certaldo onion (Slow Food Presidium), and the organic extra virgin olive oil from San Gimignano. In the afternoon we suggest a visit to the famous towers and the San Gimignano 1300 Museum: storyboards, multi-media exhibits, street scenes and a ceramic recreation of the city as it was back in 1300. Return to the hotel and overnight stay. (BB, LL)

Day 4: Radda & Greve in Chianti

Entire day dedicated to discovering the Chianti hills along the Via Chiantigena (an ancient road connecting Siena with Florence crossing over the Chianti hills). Visit a winery in Radda in Chianti where you will meet the wine producer and visit the cellars. At the end enjoy a wine tasting. Proceed to Greve in Chianti where we suggest visiting the little historical town centre. Stop at the historical butchers "Falorni" where they produce the specialties of the local [norcineria], the Prosciutto Saporito (Cured Ham) di Greve and all the cured products. In the afternoon visit the winery in Greve in Chianti for a wine and oil tasting. Return to the hotel and overnight. (BB, T, T)

Day 5: Montepulciano, Pienza

Morning departure for Montepulciano, one of the most characteristic and intact medieval cities in Italy. Visit a typical winery for a free tasting, and then explore the wonderful town centre of Montepulciano. For lunch, we suggest the old Osteria dell'Acquacheta, with its rustic and familial atmosphere. Here, you may sample some of Tuscany's best recipes (such as the Pici all'Aglione). In the afternoon, proceed to Pienza, the perfect example of a renaissance city, famous for its Pecorino cheese. Visit a Pecorino cheese producer, learn something about the cheese-making process, and sample the fare. Return to the hotel and overnight stay. (BB, T)

Day 6: Montalcino

Morning departure for Montalcino, famous for its Brunello, one of the best red wines in the world. Montalcino, however, is also a beautiful art city, which dominates 3,000 hectares of vineyards (1,500 for Brunello alone). We suggest a visit to the Mastio della Rocca, home to the Enoteca La Fortezza, to buy some local products and the exceptional honey, a local specialty. After some free time in the area, return to Florence and join a cooking class dedicated to the Tuscany tradition, followed by dinner. Return to the hotel and overnight (BB, D)

Day 7: Departure

Your experience comes to an end! (BB)
