Day 3: Rome - Florence (cont.)

In the afternoon, discover the most beautiful squares and monuments of Florence with your guide.

Start at Republica Square, one of the most elegant and historically important "piazas" in Florence, filled with refined cafés and luxury shopping. Continue through the characteristic streets and picturesque alleys and learn about the local legends, fascinating stories, and unexpected facts about Florence. Right around the corner is the intriguing Ponte Vecchio - a true icon of the city. This bridge is famous for its exclusive jewelry stores, and for being the only bridge spared during the bombings of the Second World War. Arrive at San Giovanni Square, home of the wonderful Florence Cathedral and Brunelleschi's Dome, the Baptistery and Giotto's Bell Tower.

Overnight in Florence

Day 4: Florence

Day at leisure to explore the city.

Optional: This morning, meet your Master Perfumer and discover the techniques and secrets of the historic Florentine Alchemic Tradition. The lesson will take place in an ancient atmosphere workshop. Imagine the magical atmosphere of alchemists and apothecaries residing in Florence during the Renaissance period, surrounded by unique glassware, ampules, and rare essences. Following the historical footprints of Catherine de Medici and René le Florentine, your Master Perfumer will guide you through the perfume making process. Finish your lesson with your own 50 ml bottle of custom-made perfume!

Optional: Price per adult: $160 per person, small group (Max 8 people - 1h30)

Overnight in Florence

Day 5: Florence - Venice

Check out and make your own way to the train station for your train to Venice.
