

Bali Beach Stays - 13 days / 12 nights

Your 5 tours include:

The Beauty of Kintamani

8hrs (SUN, MON, WED, FRI - seat in coach)

Your first stop is to enjoy the beauty and gracefulness of the skillful Balinese dancers. The dance expresses the eternal fight between good and evil spirits and ends with the magical Keris (dagger) dance. Then proceed to the Village of Kemenuh to visit the talented Balinese woodcarving artists in their traditional workshops. See how they carve beautiful statues and works of art from a single block of wood. The journey then continues to Kintamani to view the breathtaking Lake Batur and the active volcano called Mount Batur (1,730 meters). Your next destination is Tampaksiring, 'The Fountain of Youth' and Holy Spring.

The Unforgettable Sunset

5hrs (SUN, MON, WED, FRI - seat in coach)

Have you ever seen a Bali sunset? This half-day tour is a must. In the afternoon first visit the principal temple of Mengwi: the Taman Ayun which was built in the early 17th century for the Prince of Tabanan. It is surrounded by broad canals, which signify the oceans of the world. Further on you will have the opportunity to see the monkeys at the Alas Kedaton Monkey Forest. The forest mainly consists of nutmeg trees, and is the habitat of fruit bats (Flying Foxes) and 3 big monkey families. Have your camera ready to take photos of the spectacular sunset at the enchanting Tanah Lot Temple, built on a rocky outcrop in the Indian Ocean just a few meters offshore. Watch the waves breaking on the rocks and take a look around to find the best spot for a romantic sunset around 6:00 pm – a truly unforgettable experience!

The Eastern Bali Mystic

9hrs (TUE, THU, SAT - seat in coach)

In the village of Batu Bulan you will be introduced to the fine art of Batik painting. After this interesting visit, proceed to the eastern part of Bali, which is dominated by the towering Mount Agung (3,142 meters). It is Bali's most sacred and highest volcano. Built on one of the volcano's slopes, the Besakih Temple Complex is the most important and sacred temple for the Balinese Hindu community. For this reason it is known as the "Mother Temple". At Bukit Jambul, stop for a refreshing view over the beautiful valley and the opportunity for lunch. On your way through the east of Bali you will discover the traditional village of Penglipuran, unique for its different social community structure and layout, which dates back to the 16th century. On the return pay a visit to the Hall of Justice called "Kerta Gosa" in Klungkung, the former capital of Bali. NOTE: We recommend that you bring along a sarong to wear at the Besakih Temple.

Bali Beach Stays - 13 days / 12 nights

The Magic of Northern Bali

9hrs (SUN, TUE, THU, SAT - seat in coach)

Depart to the most scenic areas of Pupuan and Antosari, where the morning sunlight is ideal for taking pictures of the unique rice terraces. After driving through the highlands where coffee, cacao and lots of different fruits are also grown, descend to the north coast. Lovina Beach, the quiet and nice black sand beach area is the next stop. Here will be an opportunity for lunch. After a relaxation break continue on the 230 km route, winding up the mountain with magnificent views on the way until you reach about 1,200 meters above sea level for a striking panorama. Passing by Lake Buyan and Tamblingan allows you to view an area which is the habitat of many species of birds, trees and flowers unseen anywhere else on the island.

Stop at Bedugul to visit Lake Bratan, the "Lake of Holy Mountain", and its floating temple called Ulun Danu. This holy site is dedicated to Dewi Danu, the goddess of water. A bit further on, stop at the local flower and fruit market for the opportunity to buy fresh and natural tropical fruits directly from the farmers. It's a long day driving across Bali, but it is well worth it to discover the heart of Bali's impressive natural beauty.

Oleh Oleh Shopping Tour

5hrs (TUE, THU, SAT - seat in coach)

Bali is a shopper's paradise. If you want to go shopping at all the right places in Bali, then this tour is your way to do it. Look for some authentic handcrafted souvenirs in the places they are actually made.

Batubulan Village is renowned for its stone carving art. The most famous silver and gold craftsmen are found in Celuk Village, while in Ubud you will find many paintings, both in traditional and modern style. Drop into one of the many galleries and take a stroll around the city's art market.

Afterward, watch the famous Kecak & Fire Dance, where a group of male dancers will enchant you with an almost hypnotic, trance-like performance.
