A small village founded in 1878, Montebello will charm you with its landscape and two very popular attractions – the Fairmont Le Château and Omega Park.

Along the Ottawa River and thanks to its two marinas, vacationers can enjoy a multitude of activities including cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and winter hiking.

This 2 night package includes some great activities to discover the quaint village.

The Package Includes:

- 2 night accommodation in a Fairmont Room at the Château Montebello
- 2 breakfasts
- Access to multiple activities: 42 km of groomed cross country trails; 2 ice rinks; Hockey sticks and pucks; Curling Clinics for beginners (as scheduled, reservation required); Disc Golf (reservation required); Cross country skis and equipment; Skates; Snowshoes; Access to Kenauk Nature's cross country and snowshoe trails
- 1 admission to Omega Park
- 1 admission to the Canadian History Museum Gatineau
- Taxes and service fees

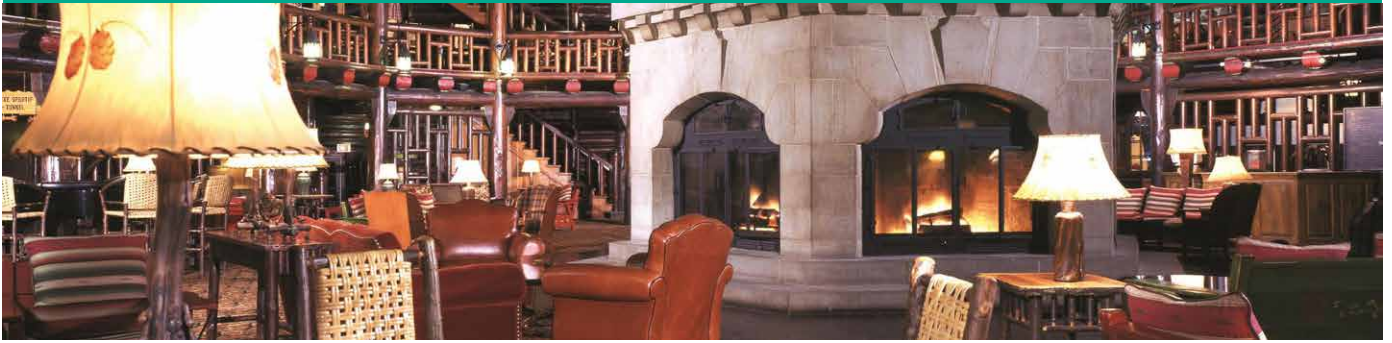

Day 1

After arriving at the Fairmont Le Château Montebello, check in to your room. Unpack and then put on your snowshoes and enjoy the 5km forested trail surrounding the hotel. It's an excellent way to enjoy a beautiful winter day.

Overnight : Fairmont Château Montebello

Winter Magic at Montebello - 3 days/ 2 nights

Day 2

After breakfast this morning, make your way to Omega Park for a 12 kilometer drive on a marked trail where you might encounter some of the twenty species of wild animals from the northern hemisphere. Deer may come to your window to greet you especially if you have carrots to feed them.

In order to make your stay at the park safe and to protect the animals, it is important to follow the posted safety instructions at all times.

It usually takes just over an hour to do the drive.

In the early afternoon, head to Gatineau for a visit to the Canadian Museum of History.

Return to Montebello at the end of the day.

Overnight : Fairmont Château Montebello

Day 3

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before checking out. You may leave your luggage at the hotel so that you can browse through the local artisan shops before departing Montebello.
