DAY 1: LISBON - OBIDOS 84 KMS

After clearing customs at Lisbon Airport, proceed to the car rental desk to pick up your car and drive 90 km to Óbidos for your first night. Óbidos is known for its charming white houses, flower-filled windows, and narrow streets paved with beautiful stone. During your stay, take the time to enjoy the stunning landscape and visit nearby national monuments in Batalha and Alcobaca, as well as the picturesque fishing town of Nazaré.

Night in Obidos: Josefa D'Obidos Hotel or similar

DAY 2, 3, 4: OBIDOS - PORTO

Drive from Óbidos to Porto, located on the right bank of the Douro River, which crosses the famous Porto wine region and offers the delights of a riverside city. During your three-night stay in Porto, we recommend exploring the city and its monuments. The historic center is classified as a UNESCO World Heritage site. You might visit a wine cellar across the river or take a cruise on the Douro River to admire the stunning views of the old city. We also suggest a full-day visit to Guimarães, known as Portugal's birthplace, and see the Medieval Castle. In Braga, visit the 18th-century shrine of Bom Jesus de Braga. Don't miss Ponte de Lima, a charming small town, and Viana do Castelo, known for its exquisite handicrafts.
