DAY 4: ROME - FLORENCE

Make your own way to the train station. Hop on your high-speed train to Florence and, after checking in at your hotel, head independently to the meeting point in the heart of the historic center. There, your tour leader will be ready to welcome you and introduce you to the city's most authentic side. The walk weaves through Florence's most iconic landmarks, beginning with the charming Piazza Madonna degli Aldobrandini and the Medici Chapels, then continuing to the Church of San Lorenzo and the breathtaking Piazza del Duomo, where the cathedral complex rises in all its Renaissance splendor. From there, the route leads to Piazza della Repubblica, the city's elegant living room, and Piazza della Signoria — an open-air museum and the historic heart of Florentine political and artistic life. Along the way, you'll pass the exterior of the Uffizi Gallery before reaching the iconic Ponte Vecchio, its historic shops suspended above the Arno River. After crossing the graceful Ponte Santa Trinita, the stroll continues along Via de' Tornabuoni, long associated with Florentine style and sophistication. An audioguide enhances the experience with stories, insights, and fascinating details, offering a deeper understanding of the city's art, history, and traditions. End your experience at a traditional wine bar in the Santa Maria Novella area. Here, you can relax and enjoy a generous mixed platter to share, paired with a glass of wine per person — the perfect way to savor the flavors of Tuscany and toast to your time in Florence.
