THE WORLD. YOUR TRIP. YOUR WAY

11 DAYS / 10 NIGHTS

PHILIPPINES BEACH HOLIDAY

Manila, Boracay, Bohol, Cebu

Discover Manila, where history meets modern life, from the ancient streets of Intramuros to the city's vibrant energy. Unwind on Boracay's world famous white sands, perfect for both relaxation and adventure. Explore Bohol's natural wonders, including the Chocolate Hills and the charming tarsiers, before heading to Cebu, where rich history, beautiful beaches, and exciting activities await. This is the ultimate escape, bringing together culture, nature, and tropical paradise in one unforgettable journey.

DAY 1: MANILA

Arrive at Manila's International Airport. Meet and greet and transfer to the hotel.

Night in Manila: Okura Hotel or Fairmont Makati or Peninsula Manila, 5*

DAY 2: MANILA

Head out on your private city tour. First stop is Rizal Park, named after the national hero, Dr. José Rizal. Next, visit the walled city of Intramuros, built by the Spaniards and once home to the elite during the long period of Spanish colonization in the Philippines. Continue to San Agustin Church, the oldest stone church in the Philippines, which withstood heavy bombardment during World War II. Proceed to Fort Santiago, one of the oldest forts in Manila, built in 1571. It was here that Dr. José Rizal spent his final days and wrote his famous poem, "My Last Farewell." Enjoy a traditional kalesa ride (horse-drawn carriage) through the local community within the walled city. After lunch at a local restaurant, proceed to the American Cemetery, which contains the largest number of graves of U.S. military personnel who died during World War II, totaling 16,859.
